

DUKES PLAY IN FORM; GAME GOES THE RIGHT WAY

Irion Works Steady Game and Huelsman Celebrates His Return to the Fray by Pulling the Usual Stuff.

The fourth game of the Albuquerque-El Paso series will be played this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The game begins at 4 o'clock. The Dukes are now back in their old stride, and the contest should be a hum-dinger. Lefty Russell for the Dukes and Knight for El Paso are the probable pitching selections. Ladies' day every day except Sundays and holidays.

Of course, it couldn't go on that way forever. One of the Royal Rooters brought a half dozen horseshoes out to the game yesterday and hung them up where they could be seen by everybody and where their shadows were cast upon the floor of the grandstand. Result—the Dukes returned to form and hammered out one of the cleanest cut victories they have enjoyed this season. Score, 10 to 6.

What kind of a bug it was that bit Frank Huelsman and kept him out of the game on Wednesday has not been determined by any of the scientific sharps, but it must have been a base-ball bug all right, for the first trip old Father Time made to the plate he leaned against one of El Paso's benches in the way that has become so familiar to local fans, and put the pill out of the yard, right over the fence at the place where it usually goes when Father Time makes up his mind to do it. Howard Murphy being on the base at the particular moment when this occurred, two runs resulted. That made everybody feel good and got the boys off to just the sort of start that they needed.

Bob Irion shot 'em across for the Dukes, and in the early stages of the contest, when every little bit counted, Bob had just about everything that goes with the equipment of a first-class pitcher. Over-anxiety and nervousness that cause him to wear himself out in the first part of the game are Irion's greatest faults, and in the latter part of the fray yesterday the enemy got to him good and plenty; but by that time the little old game had been stored away in the upper apartment of the refrigerator, right against the ice, so it didn't make much difference.

Beer essayed to sling 'em over for the visitors, but the Dukes had his number from the first stanza, and he and his crowd never had a look-in. Jack Piles, who was on the receiving end of the sensational surfboard, busted finger in the sixth. He gamely stuck it out for the remainder of the inning, but in the seventh was relieved by Thompson, Knight replacing the latter in the outfield.

One of the most noticeable features of the playing of the visitors is their gameness. They are fighting all the time, regardless of whether the score is in their favor or overwhelmingly against them. McCloskey has managed to infuse a fine fighting spirit into his men, and it's no wonder that they are out in front. At the same time there has been no trace of rowdiness in any of the games that they have played, and while they have given us a hard battle every time we have gone against them, they have made a lot of friends in Albuquerque.

Quigley was a trifle worse yesterday than on Wednesday, but none of his bad ones came at a time when they could have any possible effect on the result. The Dukes got the best of most of them, but it didn't help any because they already had the game won.

El Paso got the start in scoring in the first inning when Mattes, first base, doubled to center, went to third on Perrine's grounder to short and scored on Bauer's out from second to first. They scored again in the fourth when Bauer doubled, went to third on a wild pitch and was brought home by the run in Thompson's two-bagger in the sixth they made two. Buddy Quigley out a two-bagger to center and went to third on Blum's single. Thompson's single brought Buddy in, and out from first on Blum's double scored Blum. In the ninth, although hopelessly beaten, the visitors made a strong bid. With one down, Bauer and Paddy singled in succession. Knight, who had taken Thompson's place in the field, hit a two-bagger which scored Bauer. Thompson was out from McNeal to Herriott, but Buddy scored on a passed ball.

The Dukes also began their scoring in the first, when Murphy singled, was sacrificed to center, by Humphries and scored on Huelsman's homer over left field fence. Herriott was safe when Mathes left Perrine's peg got away. He stole second, took third when Blum threw out by Pendleton, and scored on French's two-bagger to left.

Three more runs came across in the fourth, French singled and took third on Davis's two-bagger. McNeal popped out to short and Ruedell hit a sacrifice fly that brought French in. In the fifth, scoring Davis, Irion took second on Murphy's safe punt and scored on Humphries' double.

In the fifth French hit a bouncer to pitcher, but the throw to first went clear to the fence and French got second. Davis flew out to right, but McNeal singled, putting French on third. Ruedell's screaming three-bagger scored French and McNeal. In the sixth Humphries' single, Huelsman's two-bagger and Herriott's single brought in the final runs made by the Dukes.

Johnny Dundee Hot on Trail of Freddie Welsh

JOHNNY DUNDEE

Hot on the trail of Freddie Welsh, lightweight title holder, is Johnny Dundee, the Irish-Scotch boxer, who has been showing remarkable form of late. Johnny paid off old scores with Leach cross, the fighting dentist, last week, in an open air bout at Elberta held, Brooklyn. In eight of the ten rounds Dundee boxed his man into kinks and landed at the rate of six clean punches to one. It is highly probable that Welsh will be compelled to give both Dundee and Charley White a crack at the lightweight crown in the near future, and it is a question which one will come out. Dundee claims to have a better right to meet the champion than has White, who has boxed both Welsh and Dundee and lost to them, on points.

Phoenix 4; Tucson 2. Tucson, Ariz., June 24.—A pitchers battle between Toner and Shagle was won by the Senators in the ninth inning. Phoenix was first to score. The run came on McAdie's hit, singles by Nutt and DeMaggio. In the second Heater's frank double and a single by Dowling netted another. Heater hit to close left and Pells knocked it out of reach of the fielders.

Rader attempted to score from third in the fourth on Callate's sacrifice fly but was called out by Brashner, who said he started before DeMaggio caught the ball. In the ninth Stewart scored on a passed ball on an attempted squeeze play. A foul was allowed on the part of Senator but Umpire Brashner allowed the run. Senator knocked a home run for Phoenix's second score in the ninth.

Rally in Eighth Saves the Day for League Leaders; Eddie Collins' Double Ends the Agony.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE) Cleveland, June 24.—Weaver's single and Eddie Collins' double with two out in the nineteenth inning gave Chicago a victory over Cleveland today, 5 to 4, its sixth straight from Cleveland. Cleveland looked like the winner until the eighth, when a batting rally, consisting of Blackburn's single, Felsch's double, Weaver's single and E. Collins' triple gave Chicago a one-run lead. Roth began the ninth for Chicago with a single and Schaik walked. Blackburn bunted and was safe on Mitchell's fumble.
